

Appendix 2

What happens if I make the wrong choice?

Verbal Warning

Your teacher will tell you that you are making the wrong choices and will encourage you to begin making the correct ones.

Yellow Traffic light

If you continue to not follow our 4 B's, you will need to think carefully about your behaviour. You can get back to the Green Traffic light if you follow our 4 B's.

Red Traffic light

If your behaviour has not improved, you will need to change to a red traffic light. This means that you will 5 minutes Golden time for that week.

Time out of Class

If you continue to make the wrong choices, a member of the Senior Leadership Team will come and see you. This may involve you having to spend some time out of the classroom with them whilst you think about your behaviour. At this point we will contact your parents or carers to inform them of your actions.
